3. The State of Indiana agrees to dismiss CAUSE NUMBER:
77C01-0812-FD-00106.
4. The Defendant hereby states to the Court that this Negotiated Plea Agreement is made as the free and voluntary act of the Defendant, and that no one has threatened or promised the Defendant anything other than what is contained herein. Further, the Defendant hereby acknowledges full understanding of the consequences of this Agreement.
5. The Defendant understands that the Court is not bound by this Agreement and that the Court may reject such Agreement. However, should the Court reject this Agreement, in whole or in part, the Defendant understands that the guilty plea may be withdrawn and that no evidence of this Agreement may be used against the Defendant at trial.
6. The Defendant hereby states to the Court that by entering a guilty plea the Defendant is admitting the truth of the allegations contained in the Information, and that upon the acceptance of the guilty plea by the Court, the Court may proceed with pronouncing judgment of conviction and sentencing.
7. The Defendant hereby expressly states that by entering a guilty plea the Defendant is waiving the following constitutional rights, to-wit:
  - JCR a) The right to a speedy and public trial by Jury;
  - JCR b) The right to be free from self-incrimination;
  - JCR c) The right to confront or cross-examine the witness against the Defendant;
  - JCR d) The right to have compulsory process for obtaining the witnesses to appear on the Defendant's behalf;
  - JCR e) The right to require the State of Indiana to prove the Defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt; and
  - JCR f) The right to have court-appointed counsel if the Defendant did not have the money, means, or income to hire counsel.
  - JCR g) The defendant understands he has the right to a jury trial as to any sentencing factors that may be used to increase the Defendant's sentence on any count, sentencing enhancement, or allegation, to the upper or maximum term provided by law. The defendant hereby gives up the right to a jury trial on any sentencing factors and consents to the judge determining the existence of any sentencing factors within the judge's discretion as allowed by existing statutes and Rules of Court. The defendant also agrees this waiver shall apply to any future sentence imposed following the revocation of probation.

8. The Defendant hereby acknowledges that the Defendant is aware of the maximum and minimum penalties for the charge to which the Defendant is entering a plea of guilty. The defendant understands he has the right to a jury trial as to any sentencing factors that may be used to increase the defendant's sentence on any count, sentencing enhancement, or allegation to the upper or maximum term provided by law. The defendant hereby gives up the right to a jury trial on any sentencing factors and consents to the judge determining the existence of any sentencing factors within the judge's discretion as allowed by existing statutes and Rules of Court. The defendant also agrees this waiver shall apply to any future sentence imposed following the revocation of probation.
9. The Defendant further acknowledges that this Agreement is in the Defendant's best interests and that the Defendant is satisfied with the representation and competency of the Defendant's counsel.

This Negotiated Plea Agreement is executed this 21st day of February, 2011.
